Kevin Arnold's work examines the intersections of culture, environment, and narrative. Trained at the Rhode Island School of Design (MFA in Painting) and with a Collegiate Teaching certification from Brown University, his exhibitions span over a decade, including solo shows in New York and San Francisco. Featured in publications like New American Paintings and Hola Peru, Arnold is also an author, avid diver, and coral reef preservation advocate. His underwater experiences influence his art, highlighting themes of fragility and resilience.
